

CS 1301 EC 2 – 1 Page Essay

A Reflection on Introduction to Computing with Robots

Please write three or four paragraphs reflecting on your experience using personal robots to learn about computing. We are looking for your personal perspective, so we encourage you to use your own personal stories, examples from class, etc. to address the following points:

What is your background? Where are you from? What's your major?

What was your prior experience with computing before the class?

Did you find the robots fun? scary? intimidating?

What was your favorite project in the class?

Did you use your robot for anything outside of class?

Did this class influence any of your future class choices?

How did this class influence your interest in computing?

Please include your picture along with your essay. An example format is included on the next page.
